PROPERTY SUMMARY

Harvey Robinson Estate Agents are thrilled to offer For Sale this truly unique property that can be found on the edge of the popular village of Fenstanton. Offered for sale with no Forward Chain, this property offers potential to extend and improve throughout (STPP) and would make an excellent family home. The property was constructed by the current owners in the 1960's and has been extended a number of times to create this spacious family home. Arranged over a single level, this sprawling bungalow is deceptively spacious and is centred around a spacious entrance hall. To the right is the sleeping accommodation comprising four double bedrooms, each with built in storage, a spacious four piece family bathroom and a study. There is a loft space above this side of the property that could be converted into an additional storey (STPP) but is currently boarded and used as storage. To the left of the hallway, the living space can be found as well as a separate W/C. There is a galley style kitchen to the front that leads to a breakfast area, providing space for a table and chairs. There is a 19ft lounge to the rear of the property with sliding doors accessing the rear garden, as well as a dining room and a utility room. Accessed via a rear porch, there is also an additional cloakroom and a boiler room housing the oil boiler and a decommissioned wood chip boiler. The property sits centrally on a generous plot with gardens to be found to the front, side and rear. The front garden is mature and offers a good degree of privacy with a driveway and access to the oversized double garage and workshop. To the rear, the garden is mainly laid to lawn and enjoys excellent field views as well as further workshop / storage space and a large patio. This property offers huge potential to improve throughout and must be viewed.

LOCATION AND AMENITIES

Located only 12 miles away from the city of Cambridge, Fenstanton is a quiet countryside parish in Huntingdonshire with a population of 3,000 to 4,000 people. St Ives sits 10 minutes away to the north, making it easy for local residents to commute to and from work, while providing the perfect escape away from the busier confines of nearby towns and cities.

The relatively small population of Fenstanton are served by a variety of amenities including a convenience store, café, hairdressers, butchers, chemist, post office and primary school, with The Duchess serving as the main pub in the village. The White Swan pub in Connington and The Three Tuns at Fen Drayton are also great alternatives and can be found just outside Fenstanton.

St Ives offers a little more nearby, with good quality Italian, Indian, Mediterranean and Chinese restaurants to choose from. It's also where you'll find the One Leisure Indoor Centre, that offers everything from swimming facilities to numerous keep-fit classes. There's a large Morrisons, Aldi and Waitrose in St Ives where you can do your weekly or monthly shopping and if you want to head into nearby Cambridge, Huntingdon Road/A1307 will take you there in only 25 minutes. There is also access to the guided bus which provides a regular direct service to central Cambridge and the Cambridge Science Park.

The opening of the new A1307 link road means that you can access Huntingdon train station in approximately 10 minutes and trains from Huntingdon arrive into Kings Cross or St Pancras within an hour.

Fen Drayton Lakes Nature Reserve is only a couple of miles away and attracts a delightful variety of wildlife throughout the year, including ducks, geese, otters and swans, and the wetlands run for 25 miles (40km) along the floodplains of the Great Ouse.
